

Getting to Randall's Island/Icahn Stadium

By Subway/Bus:

The M35 bus runs to Randall's Island from the northwest corner of 125th Street & Lexington Avenue and drops off right in front of the event area near Icahn Stadium. Transfer is available to the M35 from the subway via the Lexington Avenue Line (4, 5, 6 train) at 125th Street.

Walking:

There are pedestrian walkways on all three spans of the RFK Triborough Bridge that connects the Park to Manhattan, the Bronx and Queens:

From Manhattan: 125th Street and 2nd Avenue to just behind the Golf Center. Walk south along pedestrian paths to event area near Icahn Stadium.

From the Bronx: Cypress Avenue and Bruckner Boulevard to the Bronx Shore Fields. Walk south along Central Road to event area near Icahn Stadium.

From Queens: Hoyt Avenue and 28th Street, adjacent to the Astoria Boulevard N/W station, to mid-Island, adjacent to the Central Fields. Walk north along Central Road to event area near Icahn Stadium.

The 103rd Street Footbridge in Manhattan is accessible at the East River Esplanade at 103rd Street and FDR Drive. Take the 4, 5, 6 train to 103rd Street or the M15 bus to either 100th or 102nd Street. Walk east along 102nd Street to FDR Drive. Then, walk one block north directly onto the crossover leading into the Footbridge. On Randall's Island, the Footbridge is accessible at the southwest corner of the Island. Walk north along pedestrian paths to event area near Icahn Stadium

Car:

All automobile access is via the RFK Triborough Bridge. If navigating with GPS, please use "20 Randall's Island Park, New York, NY 10035" as your destination.

Please note below, there is a new ramp to Randall's Island off of the RFK Triborough Bridge from both the Bronx and Manhattan.

From Manhattan: If paying with E-ZPass at toll: Stay left at toll plaza for the exit ramp to Randall's Island, immediately after the toll plaza. If paying cash at toll: Stay right for the exit to Randall's Island, about a half-mile past toll plaza.

From Queens: Stay right for the exit to Randall's Island, immediately after the toll plaza.

From the Bronx: Once on the Bridge continue toward Queens. After the Queens toll plaza, bear right for the Randall's Island exit (about 200 yards).

Follow signs for Icahn Stadium and surrounding parking lot areas.